

South County Art Association Instructor

Casey Weibust

BFA, Printmaking, Massachusetts College of Art and Design.

Casey has been a printmaking instructor at the South County Art Association and the Jamestown Arts Center for several years and is currently the Creative Arts Director at Out of the Box Studio & Gallery in Jamestown, RI. She has also recently taught printmaking classes during the RISD Young Artists Programs. She has received various art awards, including the Juror's Choice Award in the South County Art Association's All Media Exhibit, "Storytellers: The Language of Visual Arts" in 2014 and "Best Print" in the South County Art Association's photography and printmaking show in 2014. She won third place in the South County Art Association show, "Light and Dark," in 2015 and honorable mention in the Portsmouth Arts Guild's show, "Imagine Grey," in 2016. In February 2018 her print, "Macbeth Witches," was accepted into the Newport Art Museum's Annual Juried Member's Exhibition.