

South County Art Association Instructor

Christine Herron

Christine Herron studied illustration at Rhode Island School of Design. Since then she has been the lead designer and maker creating original, handmade products for the gift and personal accessories market for her company Red Chair Studio for over 20 years. Currently she teaches painting and pottery classes at the South County Art Association and watercolors at RISD | CE Westerly. Her home and studio are in South Kingstown RI where she pursues her ceramic practice as well as painting