Julie Brayton

As a Native Rhode Islander and Fishermans daughter I have always had a very close relationship with the ocean. It came very natural to me to paint water so when others told me how difficult it was for them it surprised me. I was 13 years old when I did my first painting and I never stopped. As I progressed I learned to see how to paint the color of light. This lead to a creative and colorful journey. Now I am teaching others what I've learned both in person and online. My home and studio are both in Westerly, RI.
