

A note on materials:

For mixing all the colors we'll want, it's important to start with primary colors of both warm and cool temperatures. In whichever medium you're using, you'll want the following paints, or similar: cadmium red, crimson, cadmium yellow medium, lemon yellow, french ultramarine, phthalo blue, burnt sienna, burnt umber, payne's gray, black, and white.

Feel free to contact me with questions as you gather your supplies